A WAR MACHINE TRANSFORMED WITH LOVE INTO A CRADLE OF DREAMS

The TrueLove Boat originated as a rather remarkable class of warship known as the Kriegsfischkutter which served as minesweepers, patrol boats or submarine hunters during the world wars.

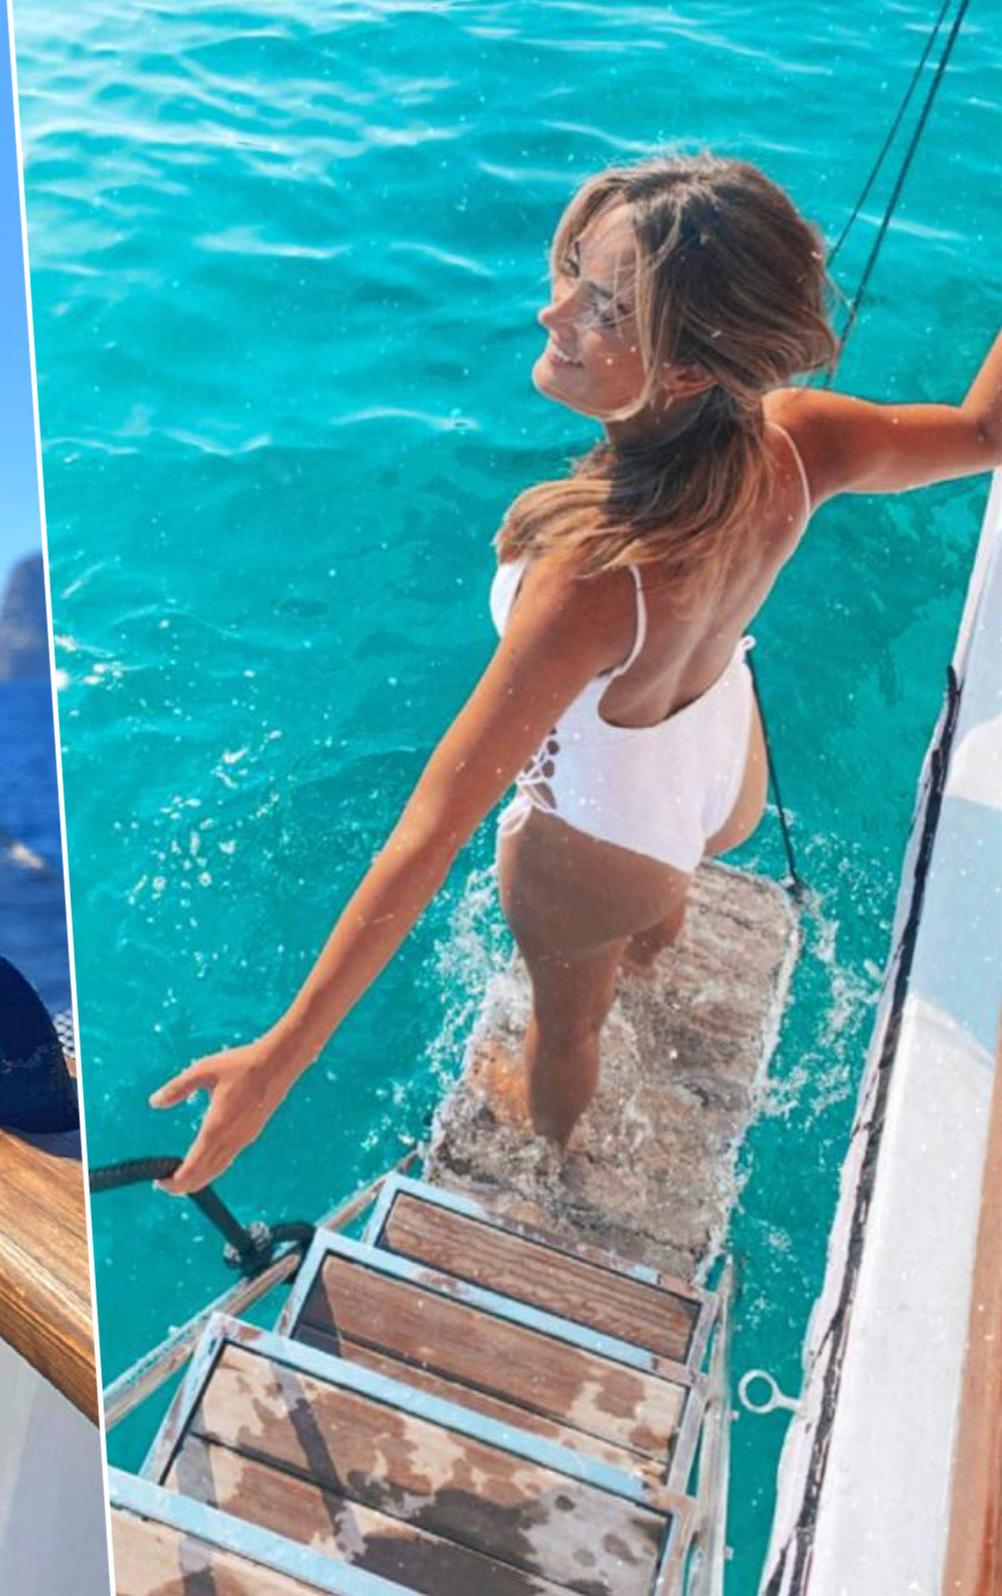

The boat has been re-imagined, renovated and re-equipped, firstly by former owners Norman Cook (aka DJ Fatboy Slim) and his wife British TV presenter Zoe Ball, and most recently global fine arts operator House of the Nobleman, custodians since 2019.

*“Nothing has ever been made with so much love — for Love —
out of an instrument of war.”*

She is the beautiful woman of the House. Reborn and rededicated as your hostess, a vessel for peace and for people who love — life, the planet, the sea, nature, their partners, their families — with purity and passion.

She is the Love Boat — noble, graceful and true
